- Mr. Tatang's retirement was due to an injury.

Because of, Due to, Thanks to

To express causes and effects in English, we use certain words and phrases, either followed by a noun or a verb.

1. The cause/effect phrases followed by a clause

- because

- since
 - as
 - for
2. The cause/effect phrases followed by a noun or noun phrase
- due to
 - because of
 - owing to
 - as a consequence of
 - as a consequence of
 - as a consequence of

The cause always comes after the cause/effect signal word or phrase.

Signal word/phrase + Cause, + Effect

Effect + Signal word/phrase + Cause

Now, see the following examples. The noun or noun phrase will be underlined.

1. John's failure in the test is due to his laziness.

Signal phrase : Due to Cause : John's laziness

Effect : John's failure in the test

2. He failed the test because of his bad study habits.

Signal phrase : Because of Cause : His bad study habits

Effect : He failed the test

3. As a result of the rain, we canceled the picnic.

Signal phrase : As a result of Cause : The rain

Effect : We canceled the picnic

4. David could not attend the party owing to his illness.

Signal phrase : Owing to Cause : David's illness

Effect : David could not attend the party
