Tradition in a teenager's hands

When you ask teenagers about their hobbies, they will probably tell you that playing computer games or watching TV are their favourite ways of spending their free time.

8.1. — His favourite pastime is boat building. Leon began building his first boat last March. Before he painted the boat, he put a coin on the front with the year he made the boat.

8.2. — And it did. Leon proudly launched his boat named 'Newstead Drifter' into the water in June. His friends, family, and residents of the town were with him on that day. 8.3. — Leon was very happy because he received lots of positive opinions from the local boat builders and fishermen. Boat building is a very important part of Newfoundland tradition. Leon finds it difficult to say exactly how much time he needed to build the boat. 8.4. — The young constructor built the boat with a lot of hard work and a little help from his father.

- A. They were all very impressed with the young man's work.
- B. On the day he started building the boat, he knew what it would look like.
- C. He simply spent every moment he had until he finally completed the work.
- D. However, Leon, a teenager from Newfoundland, Canada, has a different answer.
- E. Leon's father told him it would bring him good luck.

Zadanie 9. Przeczytaj trzy teksty na temat robienia zakupów oraz zdania 9.1.–9.4. Do każdego zdania dopasuj właściwy tekst. Wpisz rozwiązania do tabeli. Uwaga! Jeden tekst pasuje do dwóch zdań. (0–4)

A. I once went to a shop to buy a dinner set for my parents. When I entered the shop, the staff greeted me with a smile. They were very helpful and friendly. I quickly chose the set I liked. They packed everything nicely. The store gave me some extra plates and one soup bowl just in case something broke. It was very kind of them, especially that the bowl was quite expensive.

B. I went to a department store to buy a few things for my room in our new house. The salesperson seemed to be very slow at packing the things that I had chosen. It took her ages to wrap about 15 items separately in several pieces of paper. I was angry because I hate shopping. I didn't ask her to wrap the things up, but when I got my stuff, I realised it was very thoughtful of the lady, and I thanked her.

C. My parents sent me to a supermarket nearby to buy some apples. There, I saw 20 different kinds of apples I knew nothing about. I asked one salesperson if he knew something about the apples. He said he didn't but immediately called over his co-worker who did. She told me she had tried them all and described their tastes. I thanked her for the help. She left me alone to make my choice.

Which person

9.1.	changed his/her opinion about the salesperson?
9.2.	got detailed information about the product?
9.3.	left the shop with a gift?
9.4.	didn't expect to see so many goods of one kind?
