

Unit 6: Grammar – Pronouns with some and every

Choose the correct option.

- 1 Why are the sales team so angry? Is it I said?
- 2 has taken my laptop by mistake.
- 3 I looked for my glasses but I didn't find them.
- 4 told me the news about your new job. Congratulations!
- 5 Is wrong with this report?
- 6 Is meeting us at the airport?
- 7 I saw that happened in the office.
- 8 at the conference had a great time.

The words in bold are in the wrong sentences. Replace each with a word in bold from another sentence.

- 1 Do you know everywhere who can do this job? someone
- 2 Tina has got somebody very important to say.
- 3 Greg is something else this afternoon – he's not in the office.
- 4 Is somewhere going to help me or do I have to write the report by myself?
.....

Complete the sentences with pronouns starting with some- or every-.

- 1 Is ready on the laptop for this presentation?
- 2 has arrived for the conference. We're all here.
- 3 I've been to find raw materials for our products. I've visited every continent!
- 4 We need to find to do this job. We can't do it ourselves.
- 5 Did you see at our headquarters or only a few people?
- 6 People don't want our products anymore. They want different.
- 7 they said about my job was a lie.
- 8 I want to work smaller and closer to home.