Grey, My Pet

This is Grey, my pet. It is a grey iguana, but its name doesn't represent its colours. It is blue with a faint white band around its tail. Grey is 40 cm long and about 2.5 kg.

Grey likes vegetables very much. It eats water spinach, carrots, cucumbers and other vegetables. I sometimes give Grey some small insects. They are good for his bones, so it won't suffer from osteoporosis.

Grey looks like a little dragon. It has scales on some parts of its body. It also has strong legs. They are useful for swimming and climbing trees.
