Part D: Add appropriate sequencing words to the following process paragraph. (5 points)

How to Organize Your Study Space?

Making a neat study space is important for good learning and work. (1)_____, and bright place with not too many distractions. (2) _____, find a quietput your study stuff, like books and pens close to you and use shelves or drawers to keep things tidy. After that, pick a comfy chair and put your computer or books at the right height. (3) _____, decorate your study area with things that inspire you, but don't put too many distracting things. (4) _____, make a schedule or list of things to do for your study sessions. Regularly clean your study space by removing things you don't need. (5) _____, take short breaks during your study time to stay fresh. By doing these easy steps, you'll make your study space better for learning and working.

LIVEWORKSHEETS