I was with my family.

It was in Barcelona, Spain.

It was the Park Güell, a public park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements.

I went there last summer.

It was a beautiful and unique place.

There were trees and flowers in the park, several sculptures, many people visiting the park, cafes and restaurants.

There was a large salamander sculpture and a colorful mosaic.

I went for a walk. I also visited the Gaudi House Museum, which is located inside the park.
