

Tom: Hi Sally! What are you doing today?

Sally: Hi Tom! Mom and Dad are taking us shopping. We're going to buy some things we need for the house.

Tom: Wow, that sounds fun! Where are we going first?

Sally: We're going to the grocery shop to buy some fruits and vegetables.

Tom: Yum! After that, can we go to the bakery? I want to get some cookies.

Sally: Sure, Tom! And then we can visit the flower shop to buy flowers for Mom.

Tom: Great idea! Oh, and don't forget we need to stop by the chemist's to get Dad's medicines.

Sally: Right! And after that, we can go to the DIY shop to get some paint for our art project.

Tom: Awesome! I also need new shoes. Can we go to the shoe shop?

Sally: Of course, Tom! And maybe we can also check out the clothes shop for some new clothes.

Tom: This is going to be the best shopping trip ever!
