

Text 1 about a Holiday to Yogyakarta

On Wednesday, my students and I went to Yogyakarta. We stayed at Dirgahayu Hotel which is not far from Malioboro.

On Thursday, we visited the temples in Prambanan. There are three big temples, the Brahmmana, Syiwa and Wisnu temples. They are really amazing. We visited only Brahmmana and Syiwa temples, because Wisnu temple is being renovated.

On Friday morning we went to Yogya Kraton. We spent about two hours there. We were lucky because we were led by a smart and friendly guide. Then we continued our journey to Borobudur. We arrived there at four p.m. At 5 p.m. we heard the announcement that Borobudur gate would be closed.

In the evening we left for Jakarta by wisata bus.

Text 3 about a Picnic

Last weekend I and my classmates went to the countryside to have a picnic. Before leaving, we made some sandwiches for lunch. We left quite early to avoid the traffic jam.

After driving for two hours, we arrived at a very nice place. It was near a river with some big trees around it. The driver parked the car under the tree. Seeing the clear and cool water of the river, my friends and I decided to swim. After having lunch together, we went around the area to enjoy the scenery. We saw some beautiful birds and butterflies.

After walking for about an hour, we decided to return to the car and go home. Unfortunately, we could not start up the car. Finally after sometime, we could make the car start up by pushing it. We were happy although we felt a bit tired when we got home.

Text 4 about a Trip

Last April, John took a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. Las Vegas is a popular destination in the western portion of the United States. The town is most popular for its casinos, hotels, and exciting nightlife. In downtown Las Vegas, John spent a lot of time on The Strip, which is a 2.5 mile stretch of shopping, entertainment venues, luxury hotels, and fine dining experiences. This is probably the most commonly visited tourist area in the city. The Strip at night looks especially beautiful. All of the buildings light up with bright, neon, eye-catching signs to attract visitor attention.

A stay in Las Vegas can feel similar to a visit to many popular cities worldwide. Many of the hotels have miniature versions of important international sites and monuments. These famous landmarks include the Eiffel Tower, Venice, and even ancient Rome.

One day, John took a side trip outside of the city to visit the Grand Canyon, one of the Seven Wonders of the Natural World. The canyon offers a breathtaking view of Nevada's ridges and natural landscape. John especially liked the canyon because it was removed from all of the noise and movement in downtown Las Vegas.

John had a great time during his trip to Las Vegas. He did not win a lot of money in the casinos. However, he managed to see a lot of amazing sites during his visit to this city that never sleeps.

13. When did John travel to Las Vegas?

A. Last weekend

B. Last summer

C. Last spring

D. Yesterday

14. What is an activity that a tourist cannot do on The Strip?

A. Eat

B. Visit the Grand Canyon

C. Stay overnight

D. Shop

15. Which best describes the purpose of the Las Vegas Strip?

A. It is a 2.5 mile stretch.

B. It keeps tourists safe.

C. It offers a lot of activities for tourists.

D. There are too many neon lights.

16. Explain why John liked his visit to the Grand Canyon.

A. The setting was very different from downtown Las Vegas.

B. John does not enjoy spending time in cities.

- C. The Grand Canyon offers a breathtaking view.
  - D. It is one of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World.
17. What does it mean that Las Vegas is a “city that never sleeps?”
- A. A lot of people here have sleep disorders.
  - B. There is too much noise here for people to sleep.
  - C. The neon lights keep people awake at night.
  - D. Las Vegas offers exciting activities at all hours.

Text 5 about Visiting Liberty Statue

When Claire visited the Statue of Liberty for the first time, she instantly admired it as a symbol of freedom. Claire made sure to make reservations before her visit because only 240 people are permitted to climb the staircase to the top of the statue every day. After climbing almost 400 stairs, Claire received spectacular views of the city from the statue’s crown.

During her visit, Claire learned that the Statue of Liberty was not always the color that it is now. She found out that because the statue’s exterior is made of copper, the statue oxidized over time, giving it the greenish appearance it has in present day. When it was first constructed, the statue was the same color as a shiny penny!

After touring the Statue of Liberty, Claire spent the rest of the day in New York City visiting other important monuments and historic landmarks. Claire left New York hoping to have had the time to explore more sites, but she can’t wait to return to the city in the future.

18. How many people are permitted to climb the statue’s stairs per day?
- A. 150
  - B. 400
  - C. 240
  - D. 100
19. From which part of the statue did Claire receive spectacular views of the city?
- A. The mouth
  - B. The crown
  - C. The eyes
  - D. The nose
20. Why has the Statue of Liberty changed color over time?
- A. It was painted green during restorations.
  - B. New York’s poor air quality has eroded the statue.
  - C. Its copper exterior oxidized.
  - D. The statue is poorly maintained by the city.
