INTEGRATION TESTING

For example, in our banking application, a customer is using the current balance module and his balance is 5000 AED. He navigates to the deposit module and deposits 500 AED into his account. The customer navigates back to the balance module, and now his current balance should be 5500 AED. The data transfer between these two modules will be tested carefully.

What does integration testing would include based on example ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS