

TRAVELLING VOCABULARY

FILL IN THE BLANKS IN THE DIALOGUE

Claire: Hi, Max. Do you have your _____ ?

Max: Yeah, here it is.

Claire: Great. Let's go to the _____ first.

Max: I really hope we can get a _____ this time.

Claire: Me too. Oh look, there are only two people in line. We'll be done quickly.

Max: That's good. I'm so ready to board the _____ and go on vacation.

Claire: I know, me too. Where did you put your _____?

Max: It's right here next to me.

Claire: Perfect. Once we're checked in, let's head to _____.

Max: Okay. Here we go. Our turn at the counter!

Airline employee: May I see your boarding passes and passports please?

Claire & Max: Here you go.

Airline employee: You both have _____, but they're next to each other.

Both: Yes! Thank you so much!

Airline employee: Enjoy your _____! Next, please.

Max: Let's hurry up and go through immigration before the line gets longer.

Claire: Agreed. This part always takes a while.

Immigration officer: Hello, where are you travelling to today?

Max: We're going to Bali for our holiday.

Immigration officer: Sounds like fun. Have a great trip.

Claire: Thank you. Come on, let's find our gate now.

Max: Wow, our plane looks pretty big from here.

Claire: I know, right? Let's get some snacks for the flight too.

Max: Good idea. And then we can relax in our seats until we reach our _____.

Claire: _____ is at 6pm, right?

Max: Right. Just a few more hours and we'll be in paradise. Can't wait.
