

Complete the sentences with must have, might (not) have, can't have, should have, or shouldn't have and the verbs in brackets.

- I'm not sure where Jess is, but she _____ home. She wasn't feeling well earlier on. (go)
- You _____ Dave at the football match. He's away on holiday. (see)
- Oh, no! Tanya knows about the surprise party. Someone _____ her. (tell)
- I've missed my train. I _____ a taxi to the station instead of walking. (get)
- It's been really hard to concentrate today. I _____ (stay) up late last night.
- She should definitely be here by now. Her plane _____ (delay)
- I'm not sure why they didn't come. The postal service isn't very reliable so they _____ the invitation. (not receive)
- There's no money in my bank account. I _____ so much on clothes last weekend. (spend)

Complete the sentences with a verb from A and a body part from B.

A bowed covered crossed folded gave pursed raised shrugged

B arms eyebrows fingers head lips mouth shoulders thumbs

- Mike's parents _____ him a _____ up to encourage him to do his best in the race.
- My brother _____ his _____ across his chest defensively when my parents asked where he'd been.
- The teacher _____ her _____ in disbelief at Aaron's excuse for not doing the homework.
- On the day of her driving test, Olivia _____ her _____ for luck as she was getting into the car.
- My grandmother _____ her _____ in disapproval when my brother showed her his new tattoo.
- The boy _____ his _____ in shame when he was expelled from school.
- The girl _____ her _____ as she yawned during the ceremony.
- I didn't know the answer so I just _____ my _____.

Match the holiday accommodation below with the sentences.

B&B hotel house swap self-catering apartment villa youth hostel

- 'The website said it had four stars, but the room was really small and there wasn't any Wi-Fi. If you wanted to use the internet, you had to go and use some computers in the lobby!'
- 'We were really lucky because their flat was right in the centre of Rome. It also had a lovely balcony with views of the square. I think they were happy with ours because it's only fifteen minutes from Trafalgar Square on the underground.'
- 'Although it was on the coast, it also had a lovely swimming pool and a big terrace where we sat in the evenings. There were four bedrooms and enough room for all the family.'
- 'It was cheap, but we had to share a room with six other people who we didn't know. One guy spent the whole night talking in his sleep and kept me awake!'
- 'The room was fine and the breakfast was enormous. We didn't need to have lunch!'
- 'It seemed like a good idea at first because we could eat when we wanted, but we spent a lot of time shopping in supermarkets for food.'

