

Grammar training

Gerund or Infinitive?

Tick the correct sentences.

1. Imagine traveling to exotic destinations every month, experiencing new cultures.
2. After the setback, he begged to be given a second chance.
3. He should apologize to his parents for his behavior.
4. Despite being busy with work, Jason would love to attend a photography exhibition.
5. They made me wait four hours before I was examined by a doctor.
6. Why not learn to sail and embrace a new hobby?
7. I excuse her arriving late to the meeting due to unforeseen circumstances.
8. Maria wasted her entire weekend binge-watching TV shows.
9. We will help you overcoming any challenges you face.
10. It's no use to deny the truth; eventually, it will be revealed.
11. Sarah appreciates you helping her revise for the upcoming exam.
12. The situation seemed to call for immediate action.
13. Consider discussing your career goals with the mentor.
14. I would rather ride a bike than to walk to the grocery store.
15. They escaped facing the consequences of their actions by apologizing.
16. Fancy going to the concert with me this weekend?
17. He mentioned attending the conference last month.
18. I miss spending time with my family during the holidays.
19. Postpone making major decisions until you're mentally prepared to handle them.
20. Trisha refused compromising her principles..
21. It's always worth pursuing your dreams; they can lead to exciting opportunities.
22. Mark looks forward to discovering hidden gems when traveling to unfamiliar places.
23. They let her talk to the manager to address her concerns.