

1 Listen and read. Then say.

At a quarter after nine yesterday morning, Oona and Zac were in the city. Zac was at the flower market. Oona wasn't at the flower market. She was at the fruit market.

At a quarter to eleven, they were on the bus.

Look! I was at the flower market.

I wasn't at the flower market.
I was at the fruit market ...

2 Look at the picture in Activity 1. Circle True or False.

- At a quarter to nine, Zac was at the flower market. True / False
- At a quarter after nine, Zac was at the flower market. True / False
- At a quarter after nine, Oona was at the fruit market. True / False
- At ten o'clock, they were on the bus. True / False

3 Talk about yourself.

Yesterday afternoon, at two thirty, I was .../I wasn't ...

Yesterday evening, at a quarter after eight, I was .../I wasn't ...

Grammar Stop

I/He/She was ...

I/He/She wasn't ...