Interviewer: Now, Karen, you have written some very successful children's books yourself. But you say your favourite children's book is Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.

Karen: That's right. Its author, as you know, was Charles Dodgson. Dodgson is [1] .... to most people as Lewis Carroll. The book [2] .... written about 150 years ago but it's still one of the best children's books in the world. I also love the pictures in it.

Interviewer: Yes, they're amazing. Who drew them?

Karen: They [3] .... drawn [4] .... John Tenniel.

Interviewer: Many children think the pictures are [5] ....

Karen: Yes, but I don't think Dodgson wanted to scare anyone. He just wanted to write an [6] .... story for a little girl he knew: Alice Liddell.

Interviewer: What kind of man was he?

Karen: He was a very clever man. In fact, he was a mathematician. People are often [7] .... when they learn this. He was also a good photographer. Many of his photos were [8] .... in the garden of Henry Liddell, the father of the real Alice.

Interviewer: There are a lot of films about the Alice books. [9] .... was the first one made?

Karen: In 1903! And did you know that characters from the Alice books [10] .... used in some Batman comics? The Mad Hatter is one.

Interviewer: Really? That's [11] ....
