To: Emily Williams <ewilliams@tayloraccounting.com>
From: Gwen Scott <gwen_s@tayloraccounting.com>
Subject: Thanks
Date: April 28

Emily,

I really appreciate your agreeing to handle my clients while I'm away on my honeymoon in Hawaii. It's such a comforting feeling knowing that everyone will be in your capable hands.

To make the process go as smoothly as possible, I thought I should provide you with a few notes regarding some clients you'll be handling. First off, the file examination for the Westside Bakery tax report hasn't been done yet because Mr. Thompson hasn't submitted all of his information to us. He said he'll do that by May 1. The examination was set to take place on May 3 but has been bumped back by two days. It will still occur at the same place and time though. Second, the Douglas Bank file can wait a while, so I'm going to work on it when I return. If anyone from the bank calls, remind them that I spoke with Alicia Franks and confirmed my plans with her. Last, and most importantly, the Baker Construction account needs to be reexamined from top to bottom. City inspectors are investigating the construction of Lincoln Stadium, which Baker is working on, so you need to read everything in the file to make sure there's nothing unusual. Sorry for dumping that one on you, but I only found out about it this morning.

That's everything you need to know. I'll be leaving the day after tomorrow and will return in ten days. If anything comes up, you know how to reach me. Thanks again. I owe you big time.

Best,

Gwen

Struthers, Lucy [2:24 P.M.]	That works for me as well.
Atwell, Gary [2:25 P.M.]	Shall I talk to Denise and have her reserve the small conference room on the third floor? That will give us a quiet place to meet.
 Ortega, Pedro [2:27 P.M.]	I'd appreciate that, Gary. Lucy, could you go into my office and print three copies of the report sitting on my desk, please? It's in a yellow folder labeled "Madison". You can't miss it.

Questions 176–180 refer to the following memo and survey.

To: All Staff, Fairview Convention Center
From: Helga Matzner
Subject: Upcoming Conference
Date: October 12

We're only three days away from the start of the annual National Geologists' Conference that's set to take place from October 15 to 17. We need to make sure everything is prepared since the attendees are going to begin arriving to check out the premises tomorrow. Please remember that most of the attendees will be staying at the Emporium Hotel or the Marconi Hotel. Since the Marconi Hotel is right across the street from the convention center, those individuals can get here with no problem. But we'll be running a complimentary shuttle bus to the Emporium Hotel every 30 minutes from 8 A.M. to 10 P.M. on all three days of the conference. It takes roughly 25 minutes to get here from the hotel, so we'll have a couple of buses running nonstop. Those of you who are responsible for the electronics need to double-check everything to make sure we don't have any glitches. And we need to confirm with the caterers that the snacks, sandwiches, and drinks are going to arrive exactly when they need to be here. Let's do our best to make this a successful conference.

Your staff members compare very favorably to those individuals working at those places. Anytime I had a problem, a staff member was able to assist me almost immediately. The shuttle bus was impressive as well. I took it several times, and not once was it late. There were a couple of problems with the electronics malfunctioning during speeches though. Dear Mr. Astley,

Thank you for submitting your application for branch manager at the Morrell Bank in Waco. In normal situations, I would not be contacting you since you have only managed Freedom Bank for the past couple of years. However, I am aware of how well your bank is doing, so I took the liberty of speaking with two of the references you provided. Both of them spoke about you in glowing terms. They stressed that you not only possess a keen financial mind but also get along with people and that your employees all like you.

You sound like the kind of individual who would excel at Morrell Bank. As such, I would like to invite you to interview for the position. While the job is in Waco, the first interview will be held at our headquarters in Dallas. We have scheduled you for an interview on Saturday, August 16, at 10 A.M. If you can interview then, a first-class round-trip plane ticket from Waco to Dallas will be reserved for you, and we will also book you a room at the Emerson Hotel.
