A. MULTIPLE CHOICE

Read the following text for number 1 – 5!

King Fergus and Queen Elinor ruled the kingdom of DunBroch in Scotland. They had three sons and one daughter, the beautiful Princess Merida. All four children were mischievous!

Queen Elinor tried to teach Merida how to behave like a perfect princess. However, Merida liked to slip away from the palace to practise with her bow and arrow. She was a skilled archer.

One night, the queen announced that three clans were coming to visit. Each would present a suitor to compete for Merida's hand in marriage. Merida was horrified. "I won't go through with it!" she shouted. To Merida's dismay, the suitors arrived as planned. Merida sat waiting on her throne for the archery contest to begin. She knew she could handle a bow and arrow far better than the suitors could!

After the suitors had taken their shots, Merida marched onto the field. The queen yelled for her to stop, but Merida didn't listen. She fired her arrows and hit each target dead centre. She had won! Now, she wouldn't have to marry anyone!
