

VOCABULARY 3: TECHNOLOGY

1. Complete the life hacks with the verbs.

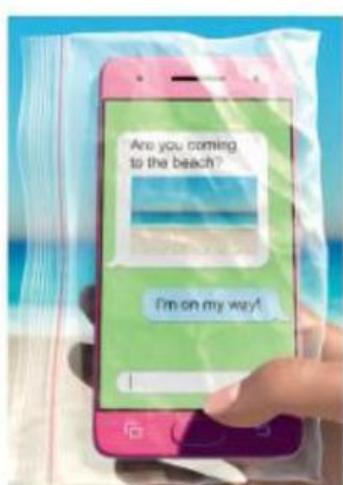

HOLD IT!

Do you want to (1) and watch your favourite TV series without having to hold your smartphone for ages? Then find an old pair of sunglasses, put them on a table, add your smartphone and you can comfortably watch videos or (2) websites!

BAG IT!

You want to use your phone at the beach, but don't want to damage it with sand or water! Keep it safe by putting your phone in a transparent plastic bag that closes. You'll still be able to (3) on apps to open them or (4) them with the latest version, (5) from left to right to change screens, (6) up and down to read texts and (7) the volume controls to make the sound louder or quieter.

CHARGE IT!

Do you need to (8) your phone quickly? Then (9) it and (10) airplane mode. Airplane mode stops your phone from sending or receiving messages, internet signals, etc. so it will charge faster. When it's time to leave, (11) your phone, (12) airplane mode, and you're ready to go with a full battery!

WATCH IT!

If you really have to walk and (13) your friends at the same time, (14) an app that allows you to see ahead of you. The app uses your camera so that you type on a view of the street ahead of you.

2. Listen to a conversation between two friends. What has happened to Emily's phone?

- a) It's got wet
- b) She has charged it for too much time
- c) Some rice grains got inside the phone

3. Listen and answer the questions.

- 1) Emily is using her phone to call Sean. T / F
- 2) Emily dropped her phone in the bath. T / F
- 3) Emily should switch off her phone immediately. T / F
- 4) Emily shouldn't use a towel to dry her phone. T / F
- 5) Emily's phone should be between two and three days in the rice. T / F
- 6) Emily's parents confirmed they will buy a new phone for her. T / F

