Task 2: Read the class discussion. Chose the correct answer.

Ms. Vargas: Class, tell me how you did research for this assignment. Did most of you use the web?

Laura: Well, yes. I tried reading / to read a long article on the web. The conclusion was good, but I didn't learn much from the rest of the article. I regret reading / to read it. I found another article on a website about linear time, but I stopped reading / to read it because it wasn't very academic.

Wendy: I tried getting / to get on to a website about time and psychology, but I couldn't make it work. It kept shutting down. I regret saying / to say that I didn't finish the assignment due to those technical issues.

Ms. Vargas: Did anyone else have trouble?

Ahmet: No. Not really. I remember reading / to read one article that wasn't very good. I found another really good website, though, and I luckily remembered bookmarking / to bookmark it before I closed it.

Wendy: That was a good idea! I found one good site, but I forgot bookmarking / to bookmark it. I was reading an article, but then I stopped reading / to read and answered the phone. When I got back, my computer was off. That was weird because I don't remember shutting / to shut it down!

Diego: I didn't use the web. In fact, I read a book. I prefer books. I read for a while and take notes, then I stop thinking / to think for a few minutes about my own ideas. Then I add my ideas to the notes.
