

Lesson 11.3 Preventing and Treating Medication Abuse

Read pages 355 – 362 to complete statements below.

1. Choosing not to drugs is challenging for young people because their _____ exposes them to drugs and the pressures of trying them.
2. During _____ years, peers have a strong influence.
3. Medication and drug abuse can lead to _____
_____.
4. When a substance use disorders occur together with other mental illnesses, they are called _____.
5. Only accept _____ from your parent or guardian, doctor, or pharmacist.
6. Refusal skills are strategies you can use to stand up to pressures and influences that want you to engage in _____ behaviors.
7. Educating young people about health hazards can help _____ medication and drug abuse.
8. In rehabilitation programs, healthcare professionals begin treat by overseeing the process of _____.
9. A _____ occurs when a person takes a medication or drug again after stopping.
10. People who abuse medications and drugs often develop a substance use disorder, which is a _____.