Cheeseburgers 1

Relative clauses can also be 'dropped in' (or embedded) into the middle of sentence after the noun it is giving extra information about. For example:

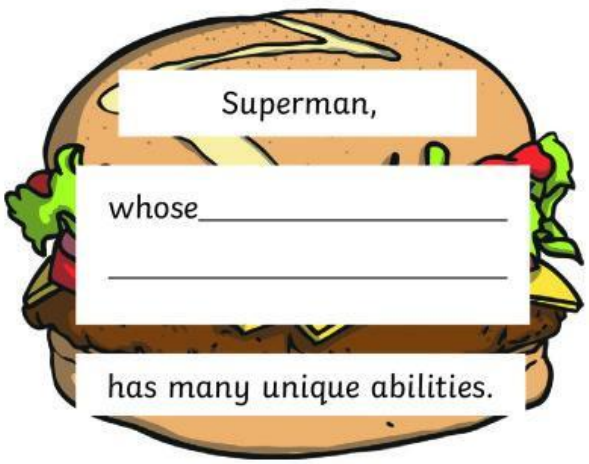

Luke likes playing football.
Luke, who is very sporty, likes to play football.

In the example above, the relative clause has been placed in the middle of the sentence after the noun 'Luke' who it gives more information about. Think of it as a cheeseburger. The relative clause is the meat that fills the middle of the bun and the bun is the main clause. Complete the cheeseburgers below by adding an embedded clause to the burger.
