Guess the word by its description

t : You play a sport with this person or work with them.
b : This person is always telling people 'do this, do that'. They are ...
g : You like someone and they like you, you spend time together and it's easy.
c : This person seems happy and sees the good things in life. They are ... p : You have a boyfriend or girlfriend for a long time or you live with them. They are your ... / If you work with someone else on an activity, they are your ...
be f : You are close to someone and spend time with them.
c : Strange or different, or not sensible; sometimes in a positive, fun way for a person we love. They are ...
l : You think someone is great and you want to be like them.
h : Someone does things for other people. They are very ...
p : This person isn't rude, they always say please and thank you. They are ...
c : You work with someone. They are not your manager, they are your ...
r : You can trust this person or thing. They are ...
g : This person gives a lot of things, maybe big gifts or time.
c f : This person is one of your favourite people. They are not in your family.
p : This person can wait for a long time or accept problems or annoying behaviour. They are ...
t : This person is like someone in their family, maybe a parent or grandparent.
k : This person is nice to other people. They want to help people. They are ... s : This person is very sensible and doesn't laugh or joke. They are ...
h -w : This person studies a lot or spends a lot of time at their job. They try to do a good job at tasks. They are ...
r : This person is not polite. They are ...
stay with: You see or send messages to someone from time to time and keep a relationship going between you.
e -g : This person is relaxed. They don't get annoyed a lot. They are...
t : This person puts things in the correct place. They are ...
m : This person is your boss, a person you work for.

LIVEWORKSHEETS