How's everything going? Sorry I haven't written you for ages but I've been quite busy with a few school projects. I just wanted to drop you a _____ to tell you more about my school music concert I _____ last week. It was absolutely mesmerising!

So, our school music concert took place on 29th of February to _____ money for a good cause. Has your school ever organised such an event before? Guess what! One of my classmates performed on _____ as well. Do you remember Helen from the party I threw last year? Generally, all the talented young _____ stole the show with their incredible performances.

You won't believe how many people attended the concert! There were about 300 people _____ teachers, students, and parents. Amazing, isn't it? The atmosphere was _____ and I must confess that we all truly enjoyed the music concert. I couldn't help but feel so proud of them and inspired by their _____ talent. It's incredible how music brings the people together while touching our souls.

I wish you could have been there with me! Do you fancy attending the next one together? I must dash now.

Take care and talk soon!

With love,

Fifi
