LISTENING QUIZ 1-2 CHECK-UP

1. Which is closest in meaning to "It's up to you"?

a. "It's not my decision."

b. "I'll let you decide."

c. "I can't decide."

2. If someone says "Cross my heart and hope to die", they're hoping you'll

a. believe them

b. protect them

c. make a promise

3. Have you found my dog?" she said. "I'm afraid not," he said. He

a. hadn't lost it

b. hadn't found it

c. wasn't scared of it

4. If someone says "What's the matter?", they must be

a. worried about someone

b. angry with someone

c. sick of someone

5. Ella added "You can't go wrong" after

a. saying it wasn't my fault

b. telling me what to do

c. asking for my advice

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Ben said, "I passed my exam," and Amy said, "No wonder.

a. You never study."

b. You don't study much."

c. You're always studying."

7. He said, "Would you ever hurt a child?", and I answered:

a. "Of course not!"

b. "Of course no!"

8. If someone says "See for yourself", they want to

a. show you something

b. see it with their own eyes

c. see one of your selfies

9. When Emma said she didn't want the job, her husband said, "Suit yourself.

a. But I doubt you'll get a better offer."

b. I wouldn't want a job like that either."

c. Now call them and tell them you want it!"

10. If you say "I'll be right with you" or "I'll be right there", you'll

a. be there in a while

b. be there in a minute

c. be there right on time

11. If someone says "No such luck", they're probably

a. pleased

b. unhappy

LIVEWORKSHEETS