

Principal Parts of Regular Verbs

Directions Write present, present participle, past, or past participle to identify the principal part used to form the underlined verb.

1. She has walked into the forest. _____
2. The jaguar snarls at the porcupine. _____
3. Carl had cooked his food before the storm. _____
4. The group traveled to the state park. _____
5. Stewart and I are waiting for the rain. _____
6. He chops branches with his hatchet. _____
7. Brian is listening for noises. _____
8. The plane crashed into the forest. _____

Directions Complete each sentence with the principal part used to form the given verb as indicated in ().

9. Charles _____ the ashes from the fire pit. (scoop/present tense)
10. She _____ her wilderness camp application yesterday. (mail/past tense)
11. He _____ his hatchet out of reach. (place/past participle with has)
12. The twig _____ as the man walks through the forest. (snap/present tense)
13. They _____ to the top of that hill. (climb/present participle with are)
14. We _____ all the matches in plastic. (wrap/past participle with have)
15. I got to my feet and _____ slowly back into the cave. (hobble/past tense)
16. The fire _____ the pile of dry twigs. (burn/present participle with is)
17. With great care, Brian _____ the match on a rock. (scrape/past tense)
18. He lifts a rock and _____ a melon open. (smash/present tense)
19. Claire and Beth _____ wood back to their camp. (carry/present participle with are)
20. Yesterday they _____ all the way around the lake. (hike/past participle with had)