

HOW HAVE THEY ADAPTED TO THE ENVIRONMENT?

Match the sentences to the animals.

* Long eye lashes to keep sand out their eyes.

* Re-grow fangs when they get broken.

* Sharp spines to protect them from herbivorous animals.

* Flowers open at night and close up in the day.

* Stores lots of water when it rains.

* Nostrils can close to keep sand out.

* Its colour changes depending on its habitat.

* Store fat in their humps.

* Has heat-sensing facial pits to find more blooded prey.

* Being able to go for a week without water.