Grammar could, was able to, managed to and succeeded in

4 Look at these ideas from the description about the Enduring Voices project. Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1 Studies in the Oklahoma region of the USA could discover / succeeded in discovering 26 languages.

2 By highlighting this fact, researchers could help / were able to help the community to keep this dying language alive.

3 Some ancient cultures could build / managed to build large monuments by which we can remember their achievements.

4 A book written a few years ago by Yupik elders and scientists was able to help / managed to help other scientists to understand how climate change is affecting the polar ice.

5 One of the original arguments for globalization was that it could bring / managed to bring us all closer together.

6 He could save / couldn't save Ubykh – a language spoken near the Black Sea – from extinction.

LIVEWORKSHEETS