

1. Rewrite the sentences with a/an or the in the correct place.

1. About 30% of my classmates come from country outside of Europe.
2. My cousin and I are almost same age.
3. I always feel very nervous before class presentation – I don't like speaking in public.
4. My brother is at university and my sister works as nurse in a hospital.
5. We have class discussions in English all the time, but I don't always have confidence to speak.

2. Circle the correct alternative.

Grandparents can be very important in the life of (a)a/the teenager. They have more experience and more time than parents and can help teens make (b)a/the right choices. Teens often (c)think/are thinking their parents don't understand them and that their grandparents understand them better. A study called 'My second mum and dad' says that there are currently 14 million grandparents in the UK, that the number (d)increases/is increasing and that they (e)live/are living longer now. The study also says that many grandparents help teenagers with (f)a/0 school work and go to school events when their parents are busy. More than 25% of teenagers say they talk to their grandparents about problems they (g)don't discuss/aren't discussing with their parents. Experts say that this generation of grandparents has (h)a/0 better relationship with today's teenagers because many grandparents are (i)the/0 younger now. One grandmother says, 'We are probably the only generation that (j)likes/is liking some of the same music our grandchildren like.'