

GRAMMAR TRANSFORMATIONS

1. Rewrite the following sentences into

PASSIVE

A strange man was watching us.

I hope they are going to buy me a present tomorrow.

They could not have burned the brownie.

IMPERSONAL PASSIVE

The manager reports that the band is coming to Las Vegas tomorrow night.

People believed that they had cuddled the kitten during the night.

They suspected that Pennywise was kidnapping children from the school.

CAUSATIVE

The mechanic solved the problems in the engine I was having in my car.

The NGO supplied goods, medicine and food for Zimbabwe.

She has never brought lunch for me to my office.

2. Combine the sentences using a suitable relative pronoun.

1. María is a good friend of mine. I have known her since we were children.

2. Glasgow is the most charming city in Scotland. My great-grand father used to live there.

3. On Saturday, they had a birthday party in that beautiful restaurant. Their car wouldn't start then.

3. Report the following sentences with a suitable verb. Remember not to use "tell" or "say" if possible.

1. "Please, please don't tell my father" she said to me.

2. "Come and have dinner with us" Rosie said to John.

3. "You must pay a fine of one hundred pounds" the judge said to Edward.

4. Rewrite the following sentences using a future or past tense.

1. Have you got any experience training young athletes? (ever)

2. When my dance class ended, my mum took me home. (after)

3. The arrival of our flight is estimated at 08:30

At 08:30 our flight _____

4. In 20 years we will not have any kind of energy (run out of)

By 2042 _____