12. Which city has poor transport to get to?	A	B	C
13. Which city has a castle you climb up to?	A	B	C

Three cities to live in

Nokyo

Nokyo is one of the biggest cities in the country. There is a large airport five miles from the city centre. The railway station is also big, and you can go to anywhere in the country from there. Visitors to the city can learn about the country's history at the museum next to the bus station. Students don't have to pay to get in. There is also a big castle on top of the hill. A new university is being built in the city centre.

Lester

Lester is a city which doesn't have an airport. It's far from the capital city. There is a railway station but there is only one train every hour to the capital. The train takes four hours. There is a museum, but it is very small and has old cars and buses. Students pay one pound and adults two pounds to enter. There is a department store in the centre which has five floors. There is a restaurant on floor five.

Barmouth

There are many hotels in Barmouth. It is a very popular holiday place. There is a very long beach. You can fly there but the train is much better. There are two lovely old theatres. One of the big universities is in this city and many students live near it. The university is not in the city centre but there is a bus every ten minutes. Tourists stay at the many hotels near the beach and the city centre. There is also a castle next to the harbour, right on the beach.

PART 3 Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Starting at the age of 14, my cousin Laura Dekker went on a journey to sail on her own around the world. She had the help of her parents but all other people in her country did everything they could to stop her. However, Laura completed her journey when she was 16 years old, which made her the youngest person to ever sail around the world on her own.

Laura was born on September 20th, in 1995, in New Zealand, during a 7-year sailing trip by her parents. As a family, they travelled for another 5 years before returning to Holland. At the age of 10 she bought her first boat from money that she earned by doing all kinds of different jobs. She sailed this boat alone around Holland and the North Sea. In May 2009 she sailed alone across England, a trip that made her want to sail around the world. That was her biggest dream.

In 2009, she started to prepare for this trip. After many difficulties, because everybody in her country thought she was too young for something like that, she completed her trip around the world on her boat, Guppy, on January 21st in 2012. After finishing her world trip, Laura kept on sailing. She now lives on her boat, Guppy, at a small place by the sea, in New Zealand, together with her husband Daniel.
