Pancake Day

Pancake Day is a tasty holiday in England. It is usually in March or in the end of February. Many English children like to eat pancakes!

Women cook pancakes and run with them in the street. They must wear aprons, put on hats or scarves on their heads. The women must toss their pancakes three times and catch it back on the frying-pan.

Usually – обычно

Many – многие

Not only – не только

Must - должны

Aprons - фартуки

Put on – надевать

Toss – подкидывать

Time – раз

Catch – ловить

Frying-pan – сковородка

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Mark T (true) and F (false) sentences

1. Pancake Day is a tasty holiday.
2. It is a French holiday.
3. It is often in October.
4. Women cook pancakes and stay at home.
5. Children don't like this day.
6. Women must toss their pancakes two times and catch it back on the frying-pan.

1	2	3	4	5	6

LIVEWORKSHEETS