

HEADLINES

Watch the following video on YouTube:

Based on the video you have just watched, do these exercises.

1. COMPLETE THESE HEADLINES

- Massachusetts woman treasure chest in
- publishes best
- Mother discovers

2. 5 FORMS OF PRACTICE WITH HEADLINES. Match these two columns

SCAN the headlines
EMAIL an article to yourself
Learn to make PREDICTIONS before reading.
Learn to SUMMARIZE what you read
REWRITE a headline as a full sentence

With standard grammar and punctuation
Say or write a few sentences
For 1-2 minutes, read the titles of the top stories
As you read, focus on whether they are right or not
Read it when you have more time

3. Are these ASPECTS OF NEWSPAPER HEADLINES true or false?

1. Articles and determiners are usually omitted
2. Simple present is used for present and past events
3. Helping verbs (Auxiliaries) are used in headlines
4. Infinitives are used for past actions
5. Numbers are written in words, not in figures

4. DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HEADLINE AND HEADLINES. Complete the sentences.

HEADLINE (singular) refers to the t..... of a news a.....

HEADLINES (plural) refers to the t..... stories.

