Post-Assessment

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. What makes the adult stage of an insect different from the previous stages? Adult insects–

A need the most food.

B can reproduce.

C don't have wings.

D are unable to move.

---

2. This image shows a monarch caterpillar.

A caterpillar represents which stage in the monarch's life cycle?

A An egg

B A larva

C A pupa

D An adult

© Accelerate Learning Inc. - All Rights Reserved

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Post-Assessment

3. Some insects, such as grasshoppers, only have three stages in their life cycles. Instead of a larva and a pupa stage, they have a nymph stage. During the nymph stage, the young grasshopper looks like a smaller version of the adult, but it does not have any–

A legs.

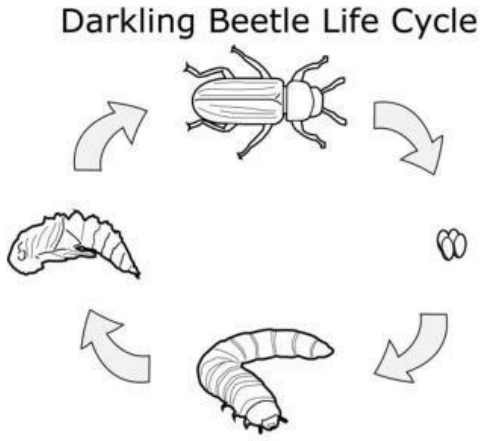

B antenna.

C eyes.

D wings.

---

4. The diagram shows an insect going through metamorphosis.

The life cycle begins when the beetle produces–

A eggs.

B a larva.

C a pupa.

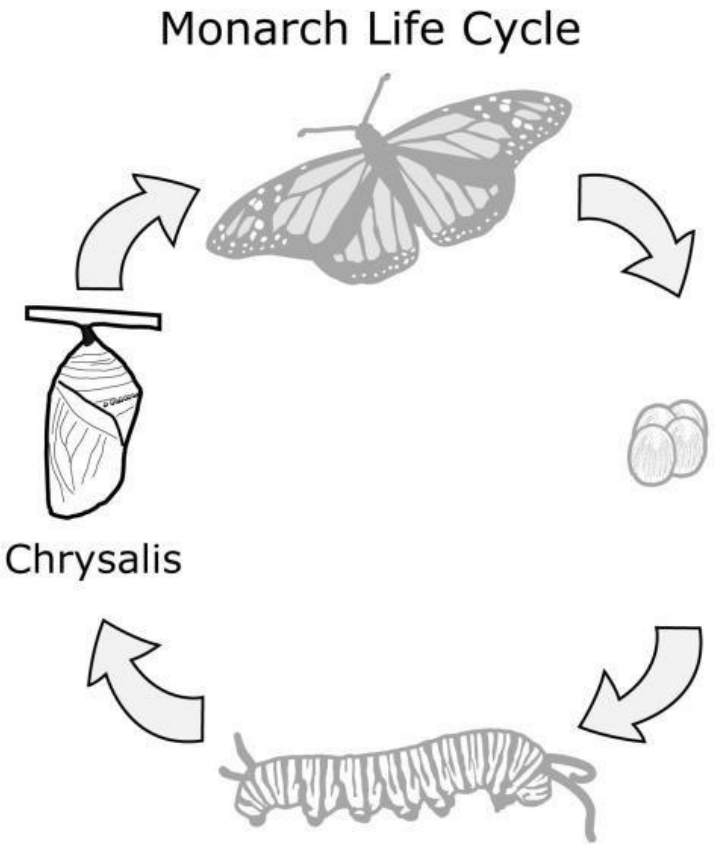

D an adult.

© Accelerate Learning Inc. - All Rights Reserved

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Post-Assessment

5. For a monarch caterpillar to transform into a butterfly, it must pass through a stage that is sometimes called a chrysalis. This image shows a monarch chrysalis.

The chrysalis represents which stage in the life cycle of the butterfly?

A Egg

B Larva

C Pupa

D Adult

© Accelerate Learning Inc. - All Rights Reserved

LIVEWORKSHEETS