

Greg Wilson is 17 and he's mad about sport. He's the captain of his school football team and he plays for the hockey team. He's also good at downhill skiing, his favourite winter sport. What's more, Greg's just finished a scuba diving course. 'One of my dreams is to visit Australia next summer and go scuba diving there,' he says. Greg would like to do more extreme sports as well: he wants to learn to do parachute jumps. 'My parents think it's dangerous, but I'd love to jump out of a plane!'

3 Read the text again and answer the questions.

- Which teams is Greg in?
He's in his school football team and in the hockey team.
- What is his favourite winter sport?

- Has Greg ever been scuba diving in Australia?

- What do Greg's parents think of parachute jumping?

- Why doesn't Tanya play football for her school team?

- What winter sport does Tanya like?

- Where has Tanya had scuba diving lessons?

Greg's sister Tanya likes sport, but she isn't mad about it. 'I'm not good enough to play football for a team, but I often play in the park with my friends,' she says. 'We laugh when someone scores a goal against their own team. We enjoy the game, but it isn't serious!' What about other sports? 'I like cross-country skiing. Mum, Dad and Greg also enjoy it. It keeps us fit and we have a great time together. I don't want to do extreme sports – but scuba diving is fantastic! I've already had two lessons in a swimming pool. I haven't been scuba diving in the sea yet, but I'll be ready to go scuba diving next summer!'
