Conditional clauses

Complete the sentences with the proper form:

1. If he (come), he will see you.
2. We (answer) if we could.
3. If I had known that I (not make) a mistake.
4. If I (be) an animal, I would be a horse.
5. It would have been better if you (wait).
6. You (pass) your examination if you work hard.
7. If I (lose) my spectacles, I wouldn't be able to read.
8. He would tell you if you (ask).
9. If you (be) good, I will give you a piece of chocolate.
10. He won't speak French unless he (go) to France.
11. If it (rain), I will stay at home.
12. He would have come if you (invite) him.
13. If you ring the bell, somebody (open) the door.
14. I would have come yesterday if I (have) nothing to do.
15. If i (have) some spare money, I (buy) a new laptop.
16. If you invest your money in that business, you (lose) it.
17. If you hadn't shown us the way, we (get lost).
18. Molly would do it if she (want) to.
19. If I were you, I (apologize) to her.
20. I should never have found the house if the policeman (not help) me.
21. The streets would be wet if it (rain)
22. You (miss) the bus if you stay in bed one more minute.
23. If you (read) that composition carefully, you would understand it.
24. The teacher would not be angry if you (write) the test correctly.
25. The soup (get) cold unless you eat it a tonce.
26. If I had been in love with him, I (tell) him.
27. He would have gone to the Cinema if it (be) a good film.
28. He would listen to you if you (speak) louder.
29. Flowers won't grow well if you (not water) tchem.
30. She must practise if she (want) to be perfect.

LIVEWORKSHEETS