

Who is the Easter Bunny?

Read and answer the questions.

According to the legend, the Easter Bunny is a rabbit that goes from house to house on Easter Sunday delivering goodies to children. Empty baskets are left out the night before so that he can fill them with chocolate, candy and Easter eggs.

The Easter Bunny tradition comes from Germany. Eggs are a symbol of the abundance of spring. Rabbits don't lay eggs but the Easter Bunny brings them to help us celebrate spring and renewal.
