

Download C1 C2 U.5 LISTEN

1. Alzheimer's is caused by a [frustration / stroke / symptom / dysfunction] in the brain which causes memory loss.
2. Uncle Bob is now [defective / frustrated / face-blind / congenital] so he doesn't recognize any of the family.
3. Her legs are [sensory / paralysed / hereditary / reclaimed], so she uses a wheelchair to get around.
4. According to the diagnosis, you have a serious medical [symptom / condition / conditioner / tumour] of the heart.
5. Many babies with [congenital / organ / direct / disorder] heart disease need treatment as soon as they are born.
6. Your illness is caused by a(n) [infection / trait / condition / alexia], so you will need to take these pills.
7. He felt [defective / paralysed / frustrated / face-blind] when he kept forgetting things, so he asked for his doctor's advice.
8. She had a [sensory / stroke / trait / tissue] a month ago, but she is slowly regaining the movement in her left arm.
9. [Dysfunctional / Congenital / Expectant / Infected] mothers need regular check-ups to follow the progress of their health and their child's.
10. The good news is that the [alexia / condition / tumour / disorder] we removed was benign, so you do not have cancer.
11. The nose is a [direct / sensory / congenital / trait] organ that is connected to memory, as smells evoke past events.
12. He thinks his depression is [infectious / hereditary / neurological / expectant] because his father also suffered from it.
13. He was born with a [frustrated / paralysed / defective / infected] heart, so he has had many operations.
14. The usual [directions / conditions / symptoms / disorders] of the flu are fever, a sore throat and aching bones.
15. He has a mental [disorder / dysfunction / direction / neurological] that causes temporary amnesia.