

RIVERS

1. Choose the correct option.

It starts at the source of the river and continues until the river meets flatter land.

The river empties into a lake or the sea.

The water flows quickly and the river is smaller.

The river gets bigger and wider.

The mouth of the river is found here.

The river begins to slow down.

This is the last stage of a river.

The river becomes even wider and the water flows more slowly.

2. Match to make true sentences.

A river basin

is an area of land that is drained by a river and its tributaries.

A tributary

is the land over which a river flows.

A riverbed

is the point where two rivers meet.

A drainage basin

is a group of river basins that empty into the same sea.

A confluence

is a river that empties into a bigger river.

3. Label the map of the drainage basins of the Iberian Peninsula.

Atlantic

Mediterranean

Cantabrian

