

HYPER-PARENTING LISTENING

You will hear a man talking about "hyper-parenting." For questions 1-9 complete the sentences with a word or short phrase.

Cathys Hagner's children have (1) _____, soccer and piano practice after school.

Cathy admits that everyone in the family is suffering from (2) _____ because of their lifestyle.

Hyper-parenting affects (3) _____ parents in the United States and Britain.

Expectant mothers are told that they have to eat (4) _____

More and more children are getting (5) _____ because they are so stressed and tired.

Many children have to attend (5) _____ after school because both parents work.

Some of the children who do activities outside school are only (6) _____ years of age.

Parents worry that they are (7) _____ their children if they don't give them every opportunity.

Terri Apter has found that many teenagers can't cope with (8) _____ they have when they start college.

Apter advises that, along with organizing extra-curricular activities for their children, parents should give them enough time for (9) _____

