

Plot Mountain Diagram

Directions: Drag the definitions to match the labels.

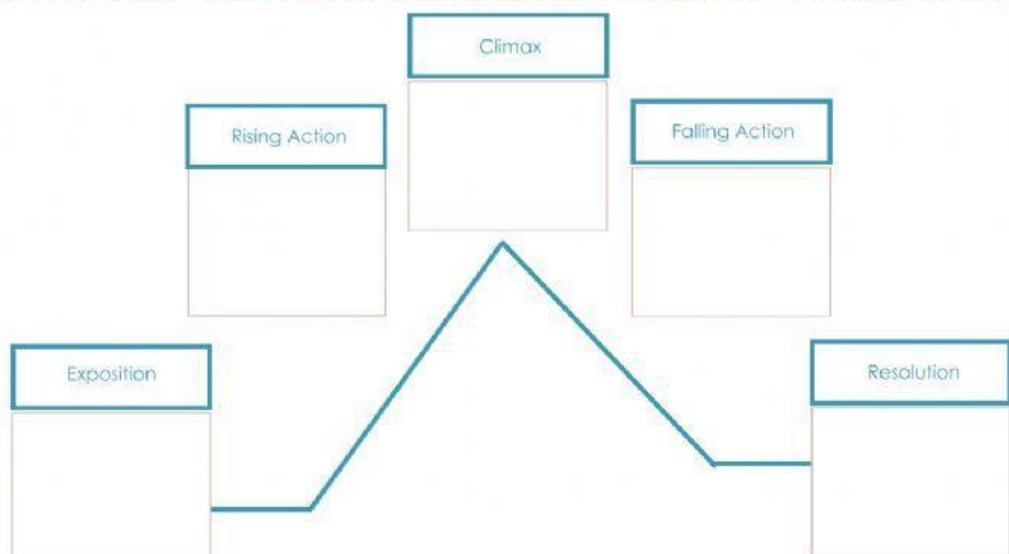

The introduction of setting and characters.

The events caused by the climax and leading up to the resolution.

The final part of the story.

The moment of greatest tension or emotion.

The introduction of the conflict.

Analyzing Plot

Directions: Drag the parts of "Goldilocks & the Three Bears" to match the labels.

Three bears: a father, a mother, and a baby bear live together in the woods with three of everything: bowls of porridge, chairs, beds.

Goldilocks wakes up and is frightened by the bears.

The three bears return to find Goldilocks sleeping in the baby bear's bed.

While the bears are out for a bike ride, Goldilocks breaks into their home and messes with their things.

Goldilocks runs away and never returns.

