

So, Too, Either and Neither Worksheet

Exercise 1. Complete the sentences with so, too, either, or neither.

1. She can speak English very well. _____ can I.
2. Katie isn't hungry and her friends aren't, _____.
3. My mother had a medical check-up yesterday morning. My friends did, _____.
4. I am not from Britain, and my friends aren't, _____.
5. My father doesn't drive to work, and _____ does my brother.
6. They went camping yesterday. I did, _____.
7. They cannot play volleyball. We cannot, _____.
8. Ann plays tennis, and _____ does Ben.
9. Josh doesn't buy some oranges and pineapples. _____ do I.
10. The pineapples aren't ripe. _____ are the bananas.
11. Linda will travel to Bangkok next week, and her mother will, _____.
12. She can speak English very well. _____ can I.

Exercise 2. Fill in the blanks with so, too, either, or neither, and a suitable auxiliary.

1. They don't want to go out tonight, and _____ John.
2. He can't swim and _____ his sister.
3. Jane won't come. _____ Peter.
4. Fruits are good for your health. _____ vegetables.
5. They shouldn't stay up late. _____ you.
6. I don't know how to cook. _____ he.
7. My mother bought many oranges. _____ my father.
8. Jane and Jack are playing tennis, and _____ Tom.
9. I don't ride a bike to school, and _____ my sister.
10. They won't attend the meeting, and _____ she.

Exercise 3. Find the mistakes and correct them. If the sentence is right, put a tick.

1. He doesn't play badminton. Neither doesn't I. → _____
2. She bought a lot of books, and so did they. → _____
3. We didn't watch TV last night. He didn't too. → _____
4. I didn't go out last night, and my sister did either. → _____
5. We don't go swimming in the winter, and they do, either. → _____
6. They went camping yesterday. I went, too. → _____
7. She sings very beautifully. He sings, too. → _____
8. She doesn't like books, and so does her sister. → _____
9. My mother had a medical check-up yesterday morning. My friends did, too. → _____
10. I am not rich, and Tom isn't, too. → _____