

Human Evolution

Small skull, ape-like features, low forehead, flat nose, no chin but jutting jaws with massive teeth.	Very similar appearance to a modern human.	The first to make tools.	Smaller face than Lucy.
200 thousand years ago	Individuals might have used crude tools of wood and stone to scavenge meat from carnivores' kills.	Began to grow crops 1.8 million years ago	evidence of spiritual development High forehead encasing a large brain, lower jaw with chin
Ate animals.			Brain was one third that of modern humans Walked slightly bow-legged
Could possibly walk and even run. 3.5 million years old	Retained many of her ape-like features. Larger head than Lucy.	Had great muscular strength. Learned the power of speech.	Family groups would have searched for plant foods including tough, hard, or fibrous fruits and seeds.
2.5 million years ago	Human-like body proportions	Family groups would have searched for plant foods including tough, hard, or fibrous fruits and seeds.	Longer legs and shorter arms than their predecessors.
	Made art		Learned how to make fire

	AUSTRALOPITHECUS	HOMO HABILIS	HOMO ERECTUS	HOMO SAPIENS
When did they live on Earth?
Where did they live?
What are their physical features?
How was their lifestyle?				