Rural and inner city teen hobbies

JACK: There isn't much to do out here in the country, where I live. When I get home from school, I help on a neighbor's farm, and then I do my homework. In my spare time I play for the local basketball team. We train twice a week and have a game most Sundays, but it can be hard as people don't like to travel this far. When we play away we spend hours on the bus. When we play at home people from all around the area come to watch. There's a great atmosphere and it gives everyone a chance to catch up and see each other. I love to watch movies but the nearest movie theater is miles away and it's hard for me to get to it. I also like to relax and watch DVDs. The farm work can be pretty tiring sometimes and it's nice just to sit and watch a movie.

B.

JILL: There is nothing to do where I live. WE have a festival once a year and that brings in a few tourists but apart from that, not much happens. We spend making sure everything is ready for the festival in  LIVEWORKSHEETS committee to make sure we all have something to do. I like the festival, and we all look forward to it, but when we're not sorting that out I get pretty bored. Most of my friends don't live close to me, so it's hard for me to see them outside of school. I speak to them online but miss doing things together. Also, the nearest city is an hour away by bus, which doesn't help.

C.

PETE: I live in a suburb on the outskirts of a city. I play soccer for a local team and we have games every Saturday. When the games are finished, I usually catch up with my friends from school. We go to the arcade or stay in and play video games. If I'm tired after soccer, I sometimes just spend the time in my room using the Internet. I meet and chat with people from all over the world. It can be really interesting. I see my friends quite a lot. We sometimes get together to do school work or study for exams. It makes things a lot easier as they understand things I don't, so it can sometimes help me out. I don't spend much time with my family, unless we go on vacation.

D.

PENNY: I have a job at a recreation center and I spend a lot of time working. I work three nights a week and a few hours on the weekend. Between my job and my homework it can be hard to find time to see my friends. I'm lucky that I like my job and I don't mind working, but sometimes the bus I catch doesn't come and I have to walk. Having a job also means I can afford to do nice things when I do get to see my friends. Last week we went to a theme park. It was a blast! I also have to babysit for my little brother and sister sometimes. They're good kids so it's no trouble. Sometimes my friends come over too, so it gives us a chance to see each other.
