

Study the meaning of the words.

Word	Definition	Translation
look	denotes the act of seeing	дивитися
stare	to look with wide open eyes because of surprise, fear, curiosity	дивитися, витріщатися
glance	to take a quick look	мигом глянути; кинути оком; швидко переглянути
peep	to look through a narrow hole or to look cautiously or stealthily	заглядати, дивитися примружившись; заглядати в маленький отвір; підглядати

Choose the best variant of answer.

- I have _____ into every room on the first floor but I can't find him anywhere.
A looked B stared C peeped
- The man _____ at me till I began to feel uncomfortable.
A peeped B glanced C stared
- The visitor _____ at all the pictures but without particular interest.
A glanced B peeped C looked
- The passers-by _____ indifferently at the street painter and walked on.
A looked B stared C glanced
- "Oh, it's unjust," the small girl cried. "You've chosen the big one because you _____."
A stared B peeped C glanced
- Frank got up and went from window to window cautiously _____ out.
A staring B looking C peeping
- The man _____ coldly at Caroline, looking her up and down.
A glanced B stared C peeped
- As she said the last few words she _____ at me to see if I was listening.
A glanced B peeped C looked
- Toma _____ quickly at the door. "Listen! Can you hear somebody coming?"
A stared B glanced C peeped
- Oliver found a hole in the fence and _____ into the garden.
A peeped B looked C stared
- He woke up and _____ at the clock and found out that it was late.
A peeped B stared C glanced
- Mr Brown laid down the paper and sat quietly _____ at the floor.
A staring B peeping C glancing