Travel Agent: Hello, Travel Wide, can I help you?

William: Oh, yes. Good morning. I'm 1 for a hotel for a long 2 .

Travel Agent: OK. First of all, um m m ... Where would you like to stay? I mean, are you looking for a 3 weekend in the country, a busy city 4 or a relaxing time at the beach?

William: Well. I 5 want a quiet weekend. I work very hard, so I'd like to 6 for a few days.

Travel Agent: Right ... So, it would be country or 7 . Which would you prefer?

William: M m m m ... the beach is very 8 , but I think I'd rather go to the country this time.

Travel Agent: OK. That's fine. Let me have a look at country hotels. Would you like to stay at a 9 hotel, where you could swim, read, eat healthy food and have relaxing 10 ? Or would you prefer a family hotel on a 11 ?

William: Ahh ... I'm just say I like the idea of a spa.

Travel Agent: Well, that's great! Now, let's just look at our spa hotels. M mmm ... You 12 don't want the beach?

William: No. I'd like to go somewhere in the 13 . Somewhere where I can go for 14 .

Travel Agent: OK ... then it won't be the Ocean Waves Resort. Farmhouse Getaways is a family run hotel in the country, but it's not a spa. How does Sparkling Springs sound? It's a 15 spa hotel in the countryside, with an indoor 16 pool, and views over the fields and woods nearby.

William: That 17 exactly what I'm looking for. Let's go for that.

Travel Agent: Excellent.
