

My subjects

What subject is it? Read and write the correct answer.

You learn how to calculate and solve problems...

You learn how to write properly, communicate with others, some grammatical aspects...

You learn about some famous painters, how to draw and paint...

You learn about melody, high-pitched and deep sounds, rhythm...

You learn about the Christianity history.

You learn how to develop physical skills such as running, jumping, playing games...

You learn about the human history, animales, planets, chemistry...

You learn some values to live in society.

You learn about emotions and how to control them.

You learn how to speak, write and understand English.

You learn how to speak, write and understand French.