

SECOND QUARTERLY ASSESSMENT
Community Engagement, Solidarity and Citizenship
Prepared by: Mr. Ravy G. Galopo

Name: _____

Score: _____/70

Grade and Section: _____

Date: _____

IMPORTANT REMINDERS: Following instructions is part of the exam. Failure to follow instructions will cause a 5-point-deduction from the total raw score.

I. Write TRUE if the statement is correct and FALSE if the statement is incorrect. Write your answer on the space provided. (15 points)

- _____ 1. Involving oneself in the feeding program at the barangay level is an example of community engagement.
- _____ 2. To secure yourself and your family's needs in times of economic crisis proves the spirit of citizenship.
- _____ 3. Developing a preventive measure plan by different organizations in flash flood prone communities shows the goal of community action.
- _____ 4. Solidarity is a feeling of unity between people who have the same interests, goal, etc.
- _____ 5. Community action is still possible as a means to build resilient communities even without community engagement.
- _____ 6. Filipino values of "pakikipag-kapwa" and "bayanihan" pertain to the notion of solidarity in community action.
- _____ 7. Citizenship is about developing partnerships and sustaining relationships among groups of people to address social problems.
- _____ 8. One of the goals of community engagement is to build trust.
- _____ 9. Being aware of our civic obligations with our co-Filipinos is a part of citizenship.
- _____ 10. To disagree about an on-going barangay health project in rural communities contributes to community action.
- _____ 11. Community engagement promotes solidarity among individuals in the community.
- _____ 12. The national economy has not been affected by COVID-19 pandemic.
- _____ 13. In promoting national peace and security, comprehensive peace talks among conflicting groups must be a priority of our government officials.
- _____ 14. Private organizations promoting national welfare should be determined by the concerned agencies.
- _____ 15. Delivering the new normal scheme of the present education is not everybody's concern.
- _____ 16. Filipinos are capable of using their entrepreneurial skills to promote livelihood.
- _____ 17. 4Ps recipients are being subjected to social discrimination.
- _____ 18. Social Amelioration Program received more negative than positive feedbacks.
- _____ 19. Being a scholar requires explicit academic recognition and sustainable holistic development.
- _____ 20. LGBT group needs equal treatment from the society.

Page 1 of Community Engagement, Solidarity and Citizenship

II. Multiple Choice. Choose the letter that best describes the following statements. Write your answer on the space provided.

- ____ 21. It refers to the basic expression of human relationship where people see the need to participate in their societies and to feel that they matter to others.
a. Volunteerism b. Unity c. Citizenship d. Community Action
- ____ 22. Which of the following shows an interrelationship of self and the community?
a. An individual who does not have regard for community activities.
b. A pessimistic attitude because people are always too busy to get involved in the community.
c. People rely in the government and private institutions' effort to help resolve community problem.
d. An individual who understands the situation of the community and has the urgency to participate.
- ____ 23. Which of the following situations best describe how to involve people affected by the problem in the community?
a. Listen to them carefully so that you have a better understanding of the causes of the problem.
b. Disregard their opinion about the crisis encountered by the community since you have the expertise to resolve their community problem.
c. Pushing to implement a project even without the consent of the majority. d. Conducting meetings and events that occupy the community members work hours.
- ____ 24. Why is there a need to involve ourselves with community action?
a. So that people would praise us with our program initiatives and accomplishments.
b. We are part of a community which is directly experiencing the problem and we a have civic obligation to be involved.
c. The community requires us to participate and there is no room for us to disobey.
d. To build our credibility in organizing community actions.
- ____ 25. Which of the following does NOT show possible roles of self-involvement in the community?
a. Attending barangay hearings on solid waste management.
b. Conducting a feasibility study on possible program intervention in an impoverished community.
c. Being reactive to the initiative of outreach programs conducted by the different school's organizations.
d. Taking the lead in community partnership.

III. Put a check (/) beside the number of the statement which shows self-involvement in community activities and put an (x) for the statement which does not show self-involvement in community activities. Write your answer on the space provided.

- ____ 26. A group of students conducts tutorial sessions as educational intervention to non-reader students of Barangay San Roque.
- ____ 27. Ana is hesitant to attend a two-day exposure in one of the indigenous communities in Sorsogon due to her parent's belief that this community is unsafe.

- _____ 28. In spite of hectic school activities, Mario volunteers to assist in the barangay clean and green project during weekends.
- _____ 29. A senior high school student believes that poverty is an endless cycle. Thus, it is hard to break this social issue by just depending on the projects of non-government organizations and private sectors.
- _____ 30. Vanna explores to create a network of funding partners in her initiative to assist homeless families in her community.

IV. 31-40. Create a comical skit/comic about a community action. Show how it makes an impact on the lives within the community. Please use the rubric below.

Criteria	Description	Points
Organization	The concept was clearly and creatively conveyed	3
Content	Important concepts were highlighted and explained	4
Presentation	The idea was clearly presented based on the comic presentation	3
TOTAL		10

V. Photo Analysis. Using the pictures below, discuss the similarities between the following pictures and using the concept of Community Engagement, Solidarity, and Citizenship and answer the following questions.

Jurgenne H. Primavera, "The Mangrove Ecosystem,"

Katerina Francisco, "No hungry child: Malabon's feeding program aims to fight malnutrition," Tania Branigan and Kate Hodal, "Typhoon Haiyan: frustration at slow pace of relief effort," The Guardian, November 15, 2013.

41-43. What are the similarities in the following pictures above?

44-45. What is the message being conveyed by the photos?

46-47. Did the actions of different people in the pictures affect you as an individual? Why?

48-49. As a student, how can you show your active involvement in your community?

VI. Study the situations below and write which part of the situation shows the importance of solidarity in promoting national and global community development through poverty and identify which department should help them. Write your answer on the space provided below.

50-53. Mang Badong is a farmer from Brgy. Bariw, Bacacay, Albay. He sustained in planting rice crops, coconuts, vegetables and other crops. He promoted the agricultural sufficiency programs of the government. Thus, he received cash grants from the government.

54-57. A teacher is a former City Scholar who is a consistent honor student and officer of different organizations. He valued the importance of education as he surpassed all the hurdles of poverty to achieve better education. He supplicated the gift of education granted by the City Scholarship program by being a good educator.

58-61. A health front liner submits himself to the call of his duty. Early in the morning, he has to go to his assigned post to attend to their patients. He always seeks for his personal hygiene and protection for the welfare of his family. He received financial assistance from the government.

VII. Answer the following in 3-4 sentences.

62-64. What is the importance of solidarity amidst today's situations?

65-67. How can a sustained community development program help the government combat different problems?

68-70. "The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members." – Coretta Scott King

Do you agree or disagree with this quotation? Explain.

God is good! 😊
 END OF EXAM *****