

Media and press vocabulary B2

Choose the correct words to fill the blanks. There are more words than you need.

| | | | | |
|----------------|----------------|------------|------------|-------------|
| misinformation | frontpage news | Free press | tabloid | credible |
| paparazzi | breaking news | broadsheet | propaganda | journalists |

What kind of news articles interest you the most?

The articles I am most interested in are those in the _____1_____ newspapers that are about celebrities and sports. I do read _____2_____ newspapers, such as the Financial Times, when I want to read about more serious events like politics because I think they are more _____3_____ when it comes to serious matters.

Should the government control what is in our newspapers?

No I do not think that the government should be allowed to control what is in the newspapers. A _____4_____ is crucial for any functioning democracy and there are several examples of how damaging _____5_____ and _____6_____ can be in terms of inciting violence and civil disorder. I think that _____7_____ should be allowed to operate freely and write what they please without worrying about government interference.