across or through

We use across to talk about movement from one side to the other of something which has 'sides', like a square, a street, or a river, e.g. He swam across the river.

We use through to talk about movement from one side to the other but 'in something', e.g. a forest, a tunnel, a crowd, e.g. We walked through the crowds and reached the empty streets on the other side.

b 10.3 Listen and check.

away and back

We use away to express movement to another place, e.g. Go away! I don't want to *spea*k to you. The man ran away when he saw the policeman.

We use back to express movement to the place where something or somebody was before, e.g. After dinner we went back to our hotel. Their dog ran away and never came back.

ACTIVATION Cover the words and look at the pictures. Where did the woman and her dog go?

They went down the steps...
