

Fill in the gaps with the words from the box:

unwind penchant emulates knick-knacks bonding

3. MODERN RUSTIC INTERIOR DESIGN STYLE

The laidback charm of countryside living is one that is often sought after, and modern rustic interior design style _____ this lifestyle at the heart of it. With a focus on simplicity and practicality, this interior style typically incorporates elements synonymous with rural living. Along with an open concept floorplan that facilitates interaction and _____ in the home, architectural structures like wooden ceiling beams and arches are key characteristics of this interior design style. The modern rustic interior design style holds similarity in its inclusion of natural elements mixed with modern design elements. Neutral colours and wooden textures are common in both of these interior styles. These, coupled with the inflow of natural light, make for a warm and cosy home that you can _____ in after a hectic day.

The Modern Rustic interior style is for you if...

- You also prefer the unhurried country life over the hectic pace in the city, value time spent together with your family and loved ones, and like being outdoors.
- Your _____ for vintage items shows in the inclusion of odd furniture pieces or _____ on display in your home.