5. ECLECTIC INTERIOR DESIGN STYLE

Of varying patterns, _____ colours and contrasting textures – the eclectic interior design style brings the most unexpected elements together in a harmonious mix. In some instances, an eclectic home interior may see mixes across different time periods, or include elements with global influences. Simply put, the eclectic interior design style _____ its homeowner's _____ individuality. Understandably, it is also one of the hardest styles to get right – much like painting a masterpiece, each piece has a role to play in the overall harmony and balance of a space. A good eye for colours, textures and patterns is needed; especially if pairing zebra prints with floral wallpapers has seriously _____ your mind!

The Eclectic style is for you if...

- You have a bold, colourful personality that isn't afraid to _____ your ground on the things you love.
- You're well-read, well-travelled, and are constantly inspired by various sources – from the different countries you visit, to the books you read and movies you watch.
- Your wardrobe is more rainbow than monochrome – you love colour, and are not afraid of experimenting with unexpected combinations.
- You have a _____ for mixing and matching things with a certain flair.
